Goodbody Dividend Income Cautious Fund - GDI 3

- Dividend equities drive Fund performance in June
- Gold declines as risk appetite stays strong

Fund performance

The Fund delivered a solid return in June. Top performing dividend equity holdings during the month included ResMed, the medical equipment company (+22%), S&P Global (+12%) and Dollar General (+10%) the US discount retailer. A large product recall by a key competitor to repair/replace 3-4m sleep apnoea and ventilator machines was viewed as a positive market share opportunity for ResMed which saw earnings upgrades during the month. The Fund's bond holdings were essentially flat and unchanged in June. Gold declined 4%, while the Fund's downside risk management strategy (index put options) was also a drag given the backdrop of rising equity markets.

Market commentary

Global equities posted another strong month in June with the MSCI World Index rising by 4.6% in Euro terms, bringing the YTD performance to +16.6%. Covid-19 restrictions in most developed market countries continued to be lifted, aided by high vaccination rates. There was a noticeable rotation in underlying style performance in June with the MSCI World Growth Index rising by 7.8%, while the MSCI World Value Index rose by 1.8%. The Fed surprised the market with a more hawkish than expected meeting during the month. The Dot Plot, which officials use to forecast interest rates, was brought forward to price in two hikes in 2023, with seven members now expecting a hike in 2022. The yield curve flattened on the back of the news with the US 10-year yield dropping below 1.5%. The inflationary narrative continued to dominate headlines during the month. The headline y/y CPI inflation rate rose to 5%, largely driven by base effects, while the core CPI inflation rate rose by 0.7% m/m. Meanwhile, ISM PMI data remained strong driven by elevated demand, supply constraints and high pricing.
