Goodbody Global Leaders Fund

- Resilience, Adaptability, Execution – ‘Own the Best, Not the Rest’
- Lonza (+15%), ResMed (+14%), Clean Harbors (+10%) lead performance

ESMA SRR1 Risk Rating

Fund performance

Lonza (+15%), the leader in outsourced healthcare manufacturing, ResMed (+14%), the dominant player in sleep apnea, and Clean Harbors (+10%), an under-the-radar leader in hazardous waste disposal, led gains in March. Chipotle Mexican Grill (+8%), the international fast casual restaurant best known for its burritos, requires a notable mention given the stock has gained more than +60% since we initiated a position in September last year. We purchased a position in Hershey, the ~€40B leader in US confectionary, during the month as a combination of concerns – record high cocoa prices, narrative that obesity drugs will permanently lower consumption – have provided the ingredients for a potentially asymmetric investment opportunity in the stock.

Market commentary

March was another strong month for global equities with the MSCI World rising by 3.4% in euro terms, bringing its total return for Q1/24 to 11.3%. There was a change in equity style leadership in March. Traditionally “value” orientated sectors outperformed with Energy and Materials stocks leading the market higher. Energy stocks specifically benefitted from the move higher in oil prices. Bond markets also posted positive returns in March. USD and Euro investment grade bond markets returned 0.9% and 1.1% respectively. Despite some higher-than-expected inflation readings in the US, the Fed, via its “Dot Plot”, continued to guide for three interest rate cuts in 2024. Meanwhile, the ECB confirmed that it needs to see further disinflationary data before cutting interest rates. Again, it noted the importance of the wage inflation data that is due to be released before its meeting in June.
