

Job description form

Details of the role
Department	Information Technology
Job title	Java Developer
Temporary/Permanent	Permanent
Reporting to	IT Development Manager
Breakdown of the work involved
Day to day duties	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Work as part of a small development team in the delivery of IT solutions using cutting-edge technology. We use the latest technologies across API, cloud and application development. ▪ Maintain and enhance existing web-enabled capabilities and custom applications within the business. ▪ Collaborate with teams across IT and the wider business, providing task analysis and technical insight to help develop and deliver key solutions. ▪ Follow company processes to meet our production and QA standards. ▪ Work closely with the principal architect in a mentorship setting. ▪ Access learning tools, training programmes and further education to help progress your career.
Experience required
Specific systems knowledge	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Basic requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Core Java - SQL - Git or other version control ▪ Experience with some of these technologies may be of benefit: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Spring Boot - Other programming languages: C#, C, Python, PHP, R etc. - Cloud services: AWS, Azure, GCP etc. - Web services and/or API development - API testing tools: Postman, SoapUI, JMeter etc. - Containerization tools: Docker, Kubernetes - 3rd Party Integration into CRM - Front end: Angular, JavaScript, HTML
Experience required (years)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Minimum 2 years core Java ▪ Minimum 2 years development experience.

Qualifications
Third level	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ 3rd level degree in computer science or similar discipline is desired.
Person specification
Characteristics of the type of person this role may suit	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Motivated developer with broad understanding of the components of large consumer facing web applications. ▪ Competent multi-tasker and time-manager, who can work under pressure and to deadlines. ▪ Excellent communicator with strong oral/writing/organizational skills. ▪ Ability to work successfully in both independent and team settings. ▪ Enjoy the flexibility of hybrid working; both on-site and remote. ▪ Excellent analytical skills, enjoyment of problem solving and a creative mind for applying business logic to development requirements. ▪ Driven individual seeking opportunities in a fast-growing business.
Timelines
Closing Date
Additional Information	