

70 Vantage (Class B EUR Accumulation Shares)

Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities (UCITS)

April 2025

Month in Review

Equity markets were weaker in April. World equities fell 4% in euro terms. Europe was the strongest performer - followed by Japan and Asia Pacific ex Japan. US and Small cap were the weakest performers. Utilities, Consumer staples and Industrials were the strongest sectors. Energy, Health care and REITs were the weakest. Euro area bond markets rose 1.7% in the month.

The announcement by Trump in early April of significant new global tariffs impacted markets. Markets were also unsettled by Trumps criticism of Fed chairman Powell. Euro bond markets were helped by a cut in interest rates and subsequent dovish commentary from ECB President Lagarde.

Wolters Kluwer, iShares STOXX Europe 600 Insurance UCITS ETF and First Trust Nasdaq Clean Edge Smart Grid Infrastructure UCITS ETF were the best performers. Xtrackers MSCI World Energy UCITS ETF, Nike and Norfolk Southern were the weakest performers. Within fixed income, BlueBay Investment Grade Euro Government Bond Fund was the best performer and PIMCO Euro Income Bond Fund was the worst performer.
